To Whom It May Concern

I am pleased to write this letter of support to Mr Prashant Srivastava of East-West Human Resources Inc.

I came in contact of Mr. Srivastava in 2007 when he was establishing his India Operations and promoting Vancouver Island University in India.

Through his efforts, we, at the Delhi University, could facilitate the visit of Dr. Ralph Nilson, President of VIU in the winter of 2007, and subsequently, I delivered my lecture on Financial Control at Vancouver Island University in the summer of 2008.

Mr Srivastava was responsible for the visit of several other faculties from the Vancouver Island University to the University of Delhi.

Under the capacity of Dean, Faculty of Business, I have observed that Mr. Srivastava and his organization is playing an important role to develop, explore and implement Indo-Canadian educational relationship to a vertical level.

During my interaction with Mr. Srivastava, I have observed that he has demonstrated good knowledge and understanding of Indian Education Systems.

We look forward to work with Mr. Srivastava and have no qualms to recommend Mr. Srivastava and East-West Human Resources Inc for their services to other key Indian institutions of repute.

I wish Mr Srivastava and his organization East-West Human Resources Inc all success in their efforts in promoting Indo-Canadian Education to the benefit of the citizen of both the countries.
